P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, Theodore Roosevelt, the Twenty-sixth President of the United States, was without a doubt the most versatile man who has ever influenced American public life, and the most interesting political figure of his time in the world; and

WHEREAS, he was not only a statesman, who had vision and the courage to make the visions real, but he was also a naturalist, a man of letters, a hunter, and a sportsman; he was representative of many of the great advances which his generation made, and, to an extraordinary degree, his personality has impressed itself on the American people.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harlan J. Bushfield, Governor of the State of South Dakota, call your attention to Tuesday, October 27, 1942, which will be the eighty-fourth anniversary of the birth of Theodore Roosevelt, and I urge you to pay tribute to this great statesman on that day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this 13th day of October, 1942.

Governor
